

VIDEOGRAPHY & PHOTOGRAPHY INTERNSHIP

(Internship Duration Approx: May 13th, 2019 – August 9th, 2019)

Spend your summer exploring the coastal environments of the Eastern Shore of Virginia through the lens of your camera! The Photography & Videography Intern will play an essential role in capturing the essence of a multi-faceted environmental education center during its peak season. This position is ideal for an ambitious, outgoing, and creative student who has college-level experience in photography and video making. The Videography & Photography Intern will work directly with the Community Outreach & Marketing Coordinator and the Marketing & Media Intern to develop content for Chincoteague Bay Field Station's Bay Blog, social media outlets, and their website. Interns will gain experience working with a thriving organization, building a substantial portfolio of photography and videos, and will have the opportunity to learn about the use of these elements in fundraising and marketing campaigns.

Responsibilities:

- To create interesting and consistent media content to showcase and promote CBFS's multi-faceted environmental education programs. Platforms will include: CBFS's Bay Blog, Facebook/Instagram/Twitter, YouTube, CBFS's website, print pieces, and outreach displays.
- To create a series of short videos about CBFS's school programs, summer camps, college programs, adult programs, family programs, student research programs, etc.
- To work with the Marketing & Media Intern to utilize CBFS's social media sites in a professional way that is consistent with the branding of the organization.

Qualifications:

- Must have updated First Aid & CPR Certification.
- Outgoing and willing to interact with and interview people.
- Excellent photography/videography skills and attention to detail.
- Familiarity with blogs and major social media platforms.
- Familiarity with Adobe Creative Cloud software desired.
- Flexible schedule with the ability to work some evenings and weekends.
- College-level experience with photography/photojournalism/video.
- Preferred: Some course work focused on writing, journalism, marketing, photography, or the like. Willing to work with candidates who demonstrate enthusiasm and potential.

Benefits:

- Room & Board – on campus housing is provided as well as meals while programs are in session.
- This internship is unpaid but may be available for course credit. We will work with your university to make accommodations as needed.
- Experience working with a thriving organization where you can build a substantial portfolio of photography, and video based projects.

To Apply:

- Resume
- Cover Letter including what skills you will bring to the position
- 3 Professional References
- Links to any of your blogs, online portfolios, social media sites that you've worked on, etc.

Applications should be submitted to Cortney Weatherby (cortney@cbfieldstation.org) and will be accepted on a rolling basis until February 8th.
