Chincoteague Bay Field Station Summer Camp Parent Guide 2026

Greetings from Chincoteague Bay Field Station!

On behalf of Chincoteague Bay Field Station, we would like to welcome you and your child to camp!! This is always an exciting time for us, as we transition from our school field trips to our amazing summer camps. If this is your first camp with us … welcome! If you have attended camp with us before … welcome back! We are excited to be sharing a summer of science, fun, and new friendships with each and every one of you.

Campers, counselors, and educators from all over the country come together for each of our summer sessions to discover and celebrate the natural environments around us and to share ideas and passions for the sciences with each other. We offer endless possibilities for exploration and new accomplishments, as well as quite a bit of fun along the way!

We hope that you and your child are as excited as our staff about the upcoming summer. We look forward to meeting you soon!

To Bring or Not to Bring… That is the Question!

- Illegal substances
- Nut products (some campers may have severe allergies)

Chincoteague Bay Field Station is not responsible for any items lost or damaged while at camp.

Opening Day

Opening Day is an exciting time for everyone involved! Campers get to move into their dorms, meet their fellow campers, and start learning about the interesting environments they will be visiting throughout the week. As parents and family members, you also get to meet your child's counselors and educators and get a first-hand look at where your child will be creating memories throughout the coming week. Campers can check in at the Red Knot Lobby on Sunday between 3:00 and 4:30. Participants must be signed in at the start of each camp session by the person dropping them off and signed out by a legal parent/guardian, or other authorized person on their registration form.

Field Station staff will be on site to answer any questions you may have, go over any important medical information for your child, and distribute schedules and information sheets. These sheets include information on contacting your child during the week, emergency contact information, and reminders about closing day. This is also when your child will sign up for their classes for the week. Classes are filled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Once your child is checked in, they will meet their camp counselor who will help move them into their dorm. You are welcome to accompany your child to help him/her get settled into their new home for the week. By 4:30 parents should depart. Campers will then begin their Opening Day activities.

Closing Day

On Closing Day, campers head to Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge for a day at the beach! After a day swimming, picnicking, and having fun in the sun, the group will return from the beach to clean and check out of their dorms. They will be back on campus around 2:30pm. Pick-up begins at 3:00pm and lasts until 4:30pm.

Campers will only be released to authorized and confirmed people listed as authorized pickup people during Opening Day. In emergency situations, campers may be released to an adult not listed as an approved sign-out on the registration form, at staff discrimination, if and only if a listed parent or guardian can be contacted at a listed number to give verbal confirmation to camp staff. In the unforeseeable event you anticipate being late picking up your camper please call the on-call phone number listed on Page 2.

After you return home and have had time to talk with your camper about camp, we will be sending out a quick online survey for you to complete. Please take a few moments to give us your feedback! If your child enjoyed their experience here, please share information about the possibility of coming here for a field trip with their science teacher.

Meals

Our dining hall staff provides campers and staff members alike with a healthy variety of delicious meals. From grill-outs to hot breakfasts, fresh fruits and veggies to after-dinner treats, the dining hall always has something hearty and nutritious to munch on. CBFS works hard to accommodate dietary needs, restrictions, and allergies. When registering your child, please mention any dietary needs, restrictions, and allergies. Food Service will prepare alternative entrees only for campers who inform CBFS staff of their restrictions prior to the start of their week at camp. Food Service will do its best to accommodate allergies. Alternative options will be made for a participant if the meal contains the allergen. CBFS campus, including the Dining Hall, is not a peanut-free campus and cannot guarantee peanut free options. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Education & Summer Camp Coordinator.

Dorm Assignments

Campers are assigned to dorms by camp and age level. Dorm assignments will be given upon arrival on Opening Day. If you have a roommate request for campers of the same age range and gender, we will be happy to try and accommodate your request.

Camper Code of Conduct

Each member of the Chincoteague Bay Field Station camp community is expected to conduct themselves according to the highest standards of conduct, attitude, and morality while participating in a program with CBFS. The Camper Code of Conduct sets forth CBFS's expectations for the behavior of our campers. It is predicated on an "honor system" that stresses personal responsibility, mutual respect, and trust. If a camper is found to be in violation of any portion of the Code of Conduct while attending camp at CBFS, they will be subject to immediate disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal. The level of disciplinary action is at the discretion of the Senior Staff members at CBFS.

The Camper Code of Conduct covers, but is not limited to, the following issues:

1) Alcohol and other illegal substance use
2) Sexual harassment and sexual behavior
3) Verbal, emotional and physical harassment and bullying
4) Personal Presentation and inappropriate language
5) Off-campus behavior
6) Curfew and boundaries
7) Honesty

Drugs and Alcohol

Chincoteague Bay Field Station strictly prohibits the possession or use of alcohol, tobacco, and other illegal substances in any form and by any means. The use of such substances while at camp (either on or off camp property) by any participant will be grounds for immediate dismissal.

Sexual Harassment and Sexual Behavior

Chincoteague Bay Field Station intends to provide an environment free of sexual harassment and sexual behavior. Behavior that constitutes sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, pressure for sexual activity, demeaning sexual propositions, exposing oneself, making sexually explicit or suggestive remarks about another person, sexually oriented jokes or personal questions, and other verbal content or physical contact that results in an individual feeling uncomfortable or threatened. Sexual behavior between campers or between a camper and staff member will be grounds for immediate dismissal.

Verbal, Emotional, and Physical Harassment and Bullying

Harassment and bullying or intimidation by campers toward other campers or staff will be grounds for dismissal. Harassment and bullying are viewed as an expression of power over or against another person. Behavior that constitutes harassment and bullying includes comments which are demeaning with respect to race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, color or disability, hazing, stalking, or other intimidating conduct; uninvited or unwanted physical conduct (e.g. hitting, grabbing, pushing, and pinching); pressuring others to perform demeaning, humiliating or dangerous acts.

Personal Presentation and Inappropriate language

All campers are expected to maintain commonly accepted standards for appropriate dress. Overly revealing clothing or clothing containing inappropriate pictures, language, symbols, or suggestions is not allowed. Chincoteague Bay Field Station reserves the right to require a change of clothing if such clothing is deemed not to be in accordance with this policy. Campers are prohibited from using profane and/or vulgar language.

Off-Campus Behavior

Chincoteague Bay Field Station expects campers to conduct themselves with propriety both on and off campus. Campers are expected to follow the same rules and conduct while they are off campus. Campers may not leave the camp property except on organized camp trips or with their parent(s) or guardian(s).

Curfew and Boundaries

It is the responsibility of each camper to make his/her whereabouts known to his/her counselors or educators at all times. Campers are expected to adhere to bedtimes/lights out as defined for each age group. Unsupervised departure from cabins after lights-out is strictly prohibited.

Honesty

It is the expectation of Chincoteague Bay Field Station that all campers and staff will respond honestly and completely to any inquiries regarding possible violations of the Code of Conduct.

Discipline

On Opening Day, campers will discuss the camper code of conduct and rules for their time at the Field Station. These rules are strictly enforced to promote the security and happiness of every camper or participant coming to campus. If there is an ongoing behavioral concern with a camper, staff will initiate a discussion with the camper about their inappropriate behavior and how it can be improved. A verbal agreement of improved behavior will be made between educators/counselors and the camper. If the behavior continues, a written contract addressing the behavior of the camper and the consequences that will occur if the behavior continues will be signed. Educators/counselors will also contact parents/guardians to make them aware that there is an issue. If the inappropriate behavior continues after this point, the camper will be sent home. Early dismissal from camp for behavioral issues will not warrant a refund. The same will be true of voluntary early departures. Any participant that engages in any form of harassment, aggressive physical contact, or vulgar/hateful word use may be removed immediately from camp without other warnings at the discretion of CBFS staff. Any camper found to be in violation of any portion of the Code of Conduct while attending camp at CBFS will be subject to immediate disciplinary action, up to and including immediate dismissal.

Non-Discrimination and Inclusion Statement

Chincoteague Bay Field Station (CBFS) is dedicated to providing outstanding multi-disciplinary, educational and research opportunities for all and does not discriminate in providing services on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identification or expression, or any other basis proscribed by law.

Refund Policy

Registration for a camp at Chincoteague Bay Field Station requires a non-refundable deposit. If you decide to cancel your registration, you will be refunded all but the non-refundable deposit. CBFS is happy to accommodate a switch in a camper's session dates at no charge as long as the new session has availability. After June 1st, refunds are reviewed on a case by case basis. Early dismissal from camp for behavioral issues will not warrant a refund. The same will be true of voluntary early departures.

Spending Money

Campers will not need any spending money for camp-related activities during the week of camp. However, if they would like to bring money for laundry or for purchasing items in the camp store, they may. The counselors will collect spending money on Opening Day and store it in a lock-box for safe keeping. It will be accessible at the camper's request.

Ship Store

The Ship Store is open throughout the week, from 9:00-3:00. It is full of all sorts of goodies, including sweatshirts, hats, candy, toys and games, local art, postcards, etc. Campers are welcome to visit the store during their off time if they want to purchase souvenirs or snacks.

Laundry/Lost and Found

Laundry is provided for campers at a cost of $2.00 per wash load (in quarters). Any lost items are collected periodically throughout the week and sent to the front desk in the Education Center. Campers are welcome to check the lost and found at any point throughout the week to try and find misplaced items. The shipping of found items after the camper's departure may be arranged at your expense.

Visitation/Phone Calls

Due to the possibility of increased homesickness, we do not allow students to have their personal cell phones with them during the week. We keep your child involved with new friends and focused on fun hands-on activities, making a phone an unnecessary distraction. Please respect our no-phone policy.

We do not have a visitation day at the Field Station. However, we encourage parents to tour the facilities and meet the counselors and educators on both Opening and Closing Days.

If there is an emergency and you need to contact your child while they are at camp, please call the office – (757) 824-5636 – during business hours (8:00 am-4:30 pm). If it is outside of those hours, and you are having an emergency, you can call our emergency on-call phone –(757) 854-8098 – to speak to a senior staff member.

Communication with your Camper

There is nothing like snail mail for a kid at camp! Mail is brought to campers every evening just before dinner and the excitement you can see in each child's eyes as they open their mail is unbeatable.
If you would like to send a letter / postcard to your child while they are here, please address it as follows:

Camper Name
_____Summer Camp (which camp they are in: Young, Budding, Aspiring, Advanced)
34001 Mill Dam Road
Wallops Island, VA 23337

You may also leave a note or postcard for your child at check-in. Counselors will deliver it to them later in the week.

Email notes and letters can be sent to spsc@cbfieldstation.org (ATTN: Camper's Name & Summer Camp) and they will be printed out and given to your child before dinner as well.

Photo Updates

Interested in seeing what your child is up to during their week at camp? Camp Counselors will be uploading images to a shared Google Photo Album that will be sent out via email at the start of the week!

Weather Related Emergency

Chincoteague Bay Field Station staff keep a close watch on any weather systems affecting the area. While we will go out in rain, we always have special indoor activities planned if the weather is deemed unfit for outdoor activities. If boat trips are postponed, we will do our best to reschedule them.

Medications/Health Care

Campers are required to have a completed camp health form on file. Health forms can be found in this packet or on our website. Campers check in all of their medication with the counselors on Opening Day. Medication will be kept with the counselors at all times so that it is on hand when needed. On Opening Day, parents will fill out a medication form describing when their child should receive their medication. Counselors will distribute medication accordingly. Medication will be returned to parents/guardians during pick-up on Closing Day. All Field Station staff members are First Aid/CPR certified and carry a first aid kit with them wherever they go. Educators and counselors oversee any minor treatments that a child may need during the week (cuts, blisters, sunburn, insect bites, etc.). In case of an emergency, the NASA medical team will respond as well.

First-Time Campers/Homesickness

Homesickness is a common occurrence in people of all ages. Parents/guardians can help their child adjust to camp by following simple steps outlined by University of California Psychologist Chris Thurber:

- Encourage your child's independence throughout the year. Practice separations; a sleepover at a friend's house can simulate the camp environment.
- Involve your child in the process of choosing a camp. The more that the child embraces the decision, the more comfortable the child will feel at camp.
- Discuss what camp will be like before your child leaves.
- Reach an agreement ahead of time regarding phone calls home. If your child's camp has a no phone calls policy, honor it.
- Send a note or care package ahead of time to arrive the first day of camp. Acknowledge, in a positive way, that you will miss your child.
- Don't bribe. Linking a successful stay at camp to a material object sends the wrong message. The reward should be your child's new-found confidence and independence.
- Pack a personal item from home, such as a stuffed animal.
- When a "rescue call" comes from the child, offer calm reassurance and put the time frame into perspective. Avoid the temptation to take the child home early.
- Don't feel guilty about encouraging your child to stay at camp. For many children, camp is a first step toward independence and plays an important role in their growth and development.
- Trust your instincts. While most incidents of homesickness will pass in a day or two, Thurber's research shows that approximately 7% of cases are severe. If your child is not eating or sleeping because of anxiety or depression, it is time to go home. However, don't make your child feel like a failure if his/her stay at camp is cut short. Focus on the positive and encourage your child to try camp again next year.

Chincoteague Bay Field Station Staff are well-trained at helping homesick campers adjust to life away from home. We keep them active and involved through team-building, field trips, fun games, etc. With your help, we know we can help your child have an amazing experience at camp.

Partnering with Parents

The staff here at the Field Station is dedicated to making sure that every camper who comes through our doors has an enjoyable experience and learns something new during their time here. To ensure that every child gets the care and comfort that they need, we request that parents share appropriate information about their child that may impact how we instruct, work with, or care for that child. You may fill out any details you feel are important on our health forms. Feel free to attach an additional sheet if you need more space. This information will help the staff better prepare for your child's needs. Camp staff will review this information prior to camp check-in. All forms will be kept in our confidential files.

Letter to Counselors

We highly encourage campers to send a letter to their future counselors. Not only does it make a camper feel more comfortable and supported, but it also allows our camp counselors to learn a bit about your child before they arrive at camp, and thus better prepare activities before their arrival. Below is a letter template that you are welcome to use, or feel free to have your camper write their own!
